To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Parker Knopf. I have known Parker for a year, and I feel I am able to offer some very positive comments about his personal qualities and academic performance.

Parker is a student in my Language Arts 1A/B Honors class. He is a very motivated student with an exceptionally strong work ethic. This can be proven alone in the fact that he has attained not only an A+ in my class, but has also carries over a 4.0 cumulative G.P.A. with of schedule of mostly honors courses. He is a very driven student who strives to do his best in every endeavor in which he partakes.

Parker is a very goal oriented student and a leader in the classroom. He is always prepared and active in class discussions, often leading discussions on the works of literature that are read in class. He takes the time and effort to thoroughly understand readings, as well as the analytical aspects and nuances of an English class. He is also a bright student who, once he understands a concept, can explain it to a struggling classmate or articulate it in a high level to an entire class. He does this not only for Language Arts, but for all of her other classes as well. This is not a trait I see in a lot of students Parker's age and grade.

Parker is not just a leader in the classroom, but is a leader of our entire campus. Though not an official member of ASB, Parker played a major role during float building. This role enabled Parker to set a positive example for his peers through his actions. Parker singlehandedly planned, designed, and guided his peers through the construction of the Freshman float.

With this type of motivation and dedication, Parker would be an asset to any program or institution to which he is involved or admitted. I would certainly recommend him for any and all opportunities.

Sincerely,

Stuart Gonzalez
